About George A. Rose, Esquire

Attorney Rose was born in West Kingston Jamaica, West Indies, on December 6, 1962. In 1996 he migrated to the US at the advance age of 27 years in pursuit of education and a better way of life. With the Guiding Light and Teachings of His Imperial Majesty Emperor Haile Selassie First, and the support of his Family, Attorney Rose persevered through all odd to pursue the path of education for his life in America. This pursuit, balanced with a high consciousness of morality, duty and service in the Cause of a Suffering Humanity, led Attorney Rose to becoming an attorney in 1999 and establishing Rose Law Firm in 2000, in service to the legally underserved, and often a Suffering Humanity. For the next seventeen (17) years, with love and passion for the Rule and Practice of Law and an ever-present sense and awareness of morality and justice in service to the disenfranchised and legally underserved, Attorney Rose livicated¹ his life and time to harnessing, honing and building his professional skills, knowledge and experience into making Rose Law Firm a viable and reputable law practice business in the local Baltimore legal services market. Throughout this time, Attorney Rose and Rose Law Firm became a source and resource for community services and assistance in Baltimore, District of Columbia, and overseas, particularly in the cultural community, and specifically the Ras Tafari community. Attorney Rose is blessed with four children, namely, Kalilia, Jabari, Maya, and Asmara. Attorney Rose is an amateur tennis player and swimmer, and a passionate chanter and harpist in Praises to Haile Selassie I First, for His exemplary morality to guide humanity.
